

Programma Klinisch Review Symposium - 16 november 2023

Congrescentrum In de Driehoek, Willemsplantsoen 1 c, Utrecht

Xenotransplantation

09.30 – 10.00

Tea and Coffee

Scientific program in ENGLISH

Session 1:

Xenotransplantation in perspective

Chair: Dorottya de Vries (NTV, LUMC)

10.00 - 10.05

Welcome by Niels van der Kaaij, chair NTV

10.05 - 10.25

Is xenotransplantation still necessary after introduction of the new donor act? – Naomi Nathan (director of the new Dutch Transplant Foundation (NTS))

10.25 - 11.00

Historical overview of xenotransplantation – Prof. dr. Ian P.J. Alwayn (Transplant Surgeon, LUMC)

11.00 - 11.30

Tea and coffee

Session 2:

The barriers to Xenotransplantation

Chair: Arnold van der Meer (NTV, Radboudumc)

11.30 - 12.00

Immunological barriers – Prof. dr. Cees van Kooten (Experimental Nephrology, LUMC)

12.00 - 12.30

Risk of cross-species infections – Dr. Annemiek A. van der Eijk (Clinical Virology, Erasmus MC)

12.30 – 13.00

Round table discussion with all presenters

13.00 - 14.00

Lunch

Session 3:

Keynote lecture

Chair: Niels van der Kaaij (NTV, UMCU)

14.00 - 14.45

US experience with first clinical case(s) of xenotransplantation – Prof. David K.C Cooper (Harvard Medical School, Boston)

14.45 - 15.00

Questions

15.00 – 15.30

Tea and Coffee

Session 4:

Ethische overwegingen (session in Dutch)

Chair: Marion Siebelink (voorzitter MEC, UMCG)

15.30 - 17.00

Interactieve sessie
Xenotransplantatie; de morele vragen vooraf - Isabelle Pirson, onderzoeker, Rathenau Instituut

17.00 - 18.00

Drinks